

Voluntary work assignment on the school sports field, Klaipėda 1948/49

Eastern European Regions 1945–1960. The Formation of a New Society and Its Reflections in Family Stories

Organizing institutions:
German Historical Institute
Klaipėda University, Center for the Study of Social Change and Institute of Baltic Region
History and Archeology

Event site:
German Historical Institute,
Al. Ujazdowskie 39, Warsaw

Workshop

Eastern European Regions 1945–1960. The Formation of a New Society and Its Reflections in Family Stories

22–23th March 2018
German Historical Institute Warsaw

In cooperation with Klaipėda University, Center for the Study of Social Change and Institute of Baltic Region History and Archeology

Photo: Voluntary work assignment on the school sports field, Klaipėda 1948/49

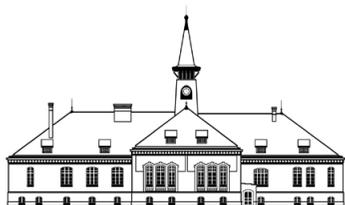

Max Weber
Stiftung

Deutsche
Geisteswissenschaftliche
Institute im Ausland

KLAIPĖDA
UNIVERSITY

KLAIPĖDA UNIVERSITY
INSTITUTE OF BALTIC REGION HISTORY AND ARCHAEOLOGY

Contact

Prof. Dr. Ruth Leiserowitz
German Historical Institute Warsaw
Aleje Ujazdowskie 39
PL-00-540 Warsaw

Phone (+48 22) 525 83 00
Fax (+48 22) 525 83 37
E-Mail leiserowitz@dhi.waw.pl

www.dhi.waw.pl
www.facebook.com/DHIWarschau/

Day 1 | 22th March

9.45 Welcome

10.00 INTRODUCTION: HISTORY AND METHODS

Ruth Leiserowitz

(German Historical Institute Warsaw/
Klaipėda University)

Sigita Kraniauskienė

(Klaipėda University)

10.30–12.30 THE EMERGING OF A NEW SOCIETY IN KLAIPĖDA REGION 1945–1960

Silva Pocyte

(Klaipėda University)

Some aspects of the formation of a new society in postwar Klaipėda region

Irena Šutinienė

(Klaipėda University)

Contrasting memories of life in postwar Klaipėda region: perspectives of local people and settlers

Sigita Kraniauskienė

(Klaipėda University)

The new society of strangers: between friendship and hatred

12.30–14.30 Lunch

14.30–16.30 PERSPECTIVE I: CHILDRENS' PERSPECTIVE

Lisa Haberkern

(University of Silesia in Katowice)

Remembering Upper Silesia. Sens-making against the backdrop of a conflicted history

Jakub Gałęziowski

(University of Augsburg/University of Warsaw)

Children Born of War in Poland after 1945 –
the problem of otherness in postwar society

Beata Halicka

(Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań)

Forced migrations and life in the border region from a child's perspective

16.30–17.00 Coffee break

17.00–18.30 PERSPECTIVE II: THE RARE VIEW FROM OUTSIDE

Anders Jarlert

(Lund University)

The Swedish help for Masurians in 1945–1946

19.00 Dinner

Day 2 | 23th March

9.45–11.15 PERSPECTIVE III: JEWISH SETTLEMENT

Julia Oisboit

(Humboldt University of Berlin)

Revealing Jewish presence in Kaliningrad
after WW2

Ruth Leiserowitz

(German Historical Institute Warsaw/
Klaipėda University)

Postwar Klaipėda from the Jewish perspective: similarities and differences

11.15–11.30 Coffee break

11.30–13.00 PERSPECTIVE IV: BORDER REGION

Daria Voyloshnikova

(University of Fribourg)

A better guarded Gyepű

Melinda Harlov-Csortan

(Eötvös Loránd University Budapest)

Establishing the Iron Curtain border zone in Hungary: the case study of the Fertő-Neusiedlersee region with special focus on the social consequences on local level

13.00–13.45 Lunch

13.45–15.15 PERSPECTIVE V: DISPLACED IDENTITIES

Daria Svirina

(European University at St Petersburg)

"Germanness" in memories of Volga
Germans who were deported to Siberia

Ksenia Litvinenko

(Institute for Contemporary History, Czech Academy of Sciences)

Architecture after displacement:
building Soviet Vyborg, 1960s–80s

15.15–16.00 CONCLUDING DISCUSSION