

Splendid Encounters IX

Struggle for Sovereignty? Small States and the Diplomacy of the Early Modern Period

16th–17th April 2020
Dubrovnik, Croatia

Organizers:

Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, The Institute for Historical Sciences in Dubrovnik
University of Zagreb, Centre for Advanced Academic Studies
Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences
Premodern diplomats Network

DAY 1

8:30-9:30

keynote lecture by Gábor
Kármán (Budapest)

PANEL 1

9:45-11:30

Theory and representation of the small statehood

Julien Le Mauff (Paris), State, Territorial Extension and Sovereignty in the Italy of City-States (14th-16th c.)

Blythe Alice Raviola (Milan), From Theory to Practice. Giovanni Botero and the Small States of Europe during His Time

Eloise Davies (Cambridge), A Cause of All Princes in Common': Anti-papal Polemic and the Sovereignty of Small States

Joris Oddens (Padua), Visualizing Diplomatic Representation in Republican States: The Political Iconography of Ambassadors' Portraits in Genoa, Venice, and the United Provinces during the 'long' seventeenth century

COFFEE & TEA 11:30-12:00

PANEL 2

12:00-13:30

Early modern microstates

Luciano Piffanelli (Tours), A Peculiar "Small State": The Crucial Diplomatic Role of Piombino in Early Modern Europe

Lovro Kunčević (Dubrovnik), "Like Small Animals to Whom God Has Given Nothing but a Strong Voice": Ragusan Republic and Its Many Patrons

Vesna Miović (Dubrovnik), From Tears to Poison: Ragusan Dealings with the Enemies from the Ottoman Neighborhood

LUNCH 13:30-15:00

PANEL 3

15:00-16:45

Middle-sized states and the struggle for sovereignty

Clare Jackson (Cambridge), A Struggle to Become Sovereign: James VI of Scotland's Dynastic Diplomacy 1595-1603

Castellano Garcia (Barcelona), Trying to be a Small State: The Struggle of Catalan Diplomacy for Achieving the Independence in the Europe of the Peace of Utrecht

Mark Edward Hay (Rotterdam), The Netherlands, Nassau and the House of Orange in the Era of the Reconstruction of the European International Order, 1780-1815: Lesser Powers, Strategies of Conflict Resolution, Dynastic Networks

COFFEE & TEA 16:45-17:15

Panel 4

17:15-19:00

Eastern European context(s)

Martyna Mirecka (independent scholar), Does the Size Matter? Small Great Poland-Lithuania in the Seventeenth Century

Tetiana Grygorieva (Kyiv), Between the Quest for Patronage and the Struggle for Sovereignty: Diplomatic Relations of the Cossack Ukraine and the Ottoman Empire

Tatyana Zhukova (York), The Baltic Conundrum: The Duchy of Courland and Semigalia in the Seventeenth Century

Linda S. Frey and Marsha L. Frey (Missoula, Manhattan), Between the Hammer and the Anvil: Brandenburg-Prussia and the Great Northern War

DAY 2

Panel 5

9:00-10:30

The Italian context(s)

Brian Brege (Syracuse), Small Power Aggression and the Moral Hazard of Alliances: The Grand Duchy of Tuscany's Mediterranean Adventurism, 1599-1612

Ubaldo Morozzi (Swansea), The Tuscan Contest. Trade and Diplomacy between England and Tuscany (1696-1704)

David Quiles Albero (Madrid), The Strength of a Republic: the Venetian Diplomacy during the War of Candia (1645-1669)

John Condren (Oxford) "È cosa certa ... che ama gli italiani": Louis XIV and the Small Italian States, 1659 - 1715

COFFEE & TEA 10:30-11:00

Panel 6

11:00-13:30

The Western Mediterranean context(s): Small States of Barbary under Spanish Protection: Adapting Patterns of Negotiation for the Mediterranean Defense (1500-1550)

Chair: Bunes Ibarra

Jose Miguel Escribano-Páez (Seville), Fragmented Negotiations: Agents, Practices, and Objects between Tlemcen and the Spanish Monarchy at the beginning of the Sixteenth Century

Francesco Caprioli (Madrid, Milano), Pitiless Corsairs or State Representatives? An Overview of the Spanish Diplomacy with Algiers at the Beginning of the 16th Century

Rubén González-Cuerva (Madrid), An Uncommon Protectorate: Hafsids Tunis and Spanish Diplomacy (1535-1574)

LUNCH 13:30-15:00

PANEL 7

15:00-16:45

Personal networks and mediation of small states

Alexandru Balasz (Cortland), Wallachian and Moldovan Phanariot Diplomats Negotiating their Autonomy between the Ottoman-Russian-Habsburg Empires

Zsuzsanna Cziráki (Szeged), Disputed Loyalties: Subjects of Seventeenth-century Small States as Habsburg Interpreters for Oriental Languages

Jonathan Spangler (Manchester), The Personal Touch: Using Personal and Kinship Networks to Ensure Survival in a Small State, the Duchy of Lorraine under Duke Léopold (1698- 1729)

Markus Laufs (Bonn), One Mission, Many Competitors. The Role of Peace Mediation as Desired Instrument of Being Part of the Concert of Great Powers

COFFEE & TEA 16:45-17:15

PANEL 8

17:15-18:45

Specific cases: Rome and the non-European states

Dorota Gregorowicz (Katowice), The State of the Church – Great Diplomacy of a Small State

David Veevers (London), 'It Would in Soe Great a Measure lessen their Sovereignty': Strategies of Survival for the Small States of the West Coast of Sumatra, 1680 to 1720

Samantha R. Billing (State College), Indigenous Kings and the Miskitu Nation: Diplomacy and State Building in Colonial Central America

GENERAL DISCUSSION 18:45-19:15

20:00 Conference dinner at the restaurant Kopun

